

Tradex - Application for Reconsideration of Certain Decisions under Section 39 of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999

Protecting your confidential information is important to us. Tradex Scheme applicants and order holders should be aware that public disclosure of information could occur if the release of the information is required by law. This may happen, for example, if the department is required to respond to a resolution of the Parliament or order of a court. The confidentiality of information provided is protected by relevant provisions in the Public Service Act 1999, the Public Service Regulations, the Privacy Act 1988, and the Criminal Code, as well as general law.

More information is available in the Tradex Information Guide

Decisions subject to review

A person may apply to the Secretary, Department of Industry, Science and Resources within 28 days after the day on which the notice of the decision was given to the person, for a reconsideration of the following decisions:

1. A decision by the Secretary to refuse an application wholly or partly for a Tradex order under section 11 of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999 (the Act)
2. A decision by the Secretary to refuse an application wholly or partly for a variation of a Tradex order under section 13 of the Act
3. A decision by the Secretary to suspend a Tradex order, under section 17 of the Act
4. A decision by the Secretary to revoke a Tradex order, under section 19 or 19A of the Act.

The application must be made in accordance with this approved form.

The Secretary must decide, not later than 28 days after the day on which the application for reconsideration is lodged, whether to affirm the original decision or to substitute any other decisions that the Secretary might have made.
